

I would like to express my support for the continuation of the cross-ownership rule.

This rule protects the public interest by ensuring that no single interest has a monopoly on public expression in any single community.

A healthy democracy requires healthy debate. Repeal of this rule threatens that debate.